

Please fill out entry form below:

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State & Zip Code: _____

Email Address: _____

Entry Fee Paid: _____ Attending Lunch: Yes/No

List school if applicable. Include description, inspiration, and medium:

Title of Entry: _____ Circle one, Adult, Teen or Child

Rules for Historical Art Contest:

Adults, ages 20 and up First & Second Place for Excellence

Teens, ages 12 -19 First & Second Place for Excellence

Children, ages 6 - 11 First & Second Place for Excellence

Best of Show "Judges Choice" $200 cash prize

(Must be present to win or prize money goes to runner up.)

Entry Fee $20 or $15 for students.

(Two entries will receive a conference ticket.)

Entry may be in any medium but must have an element of Victorian Design.

Contest Entry Drop Off Dates:

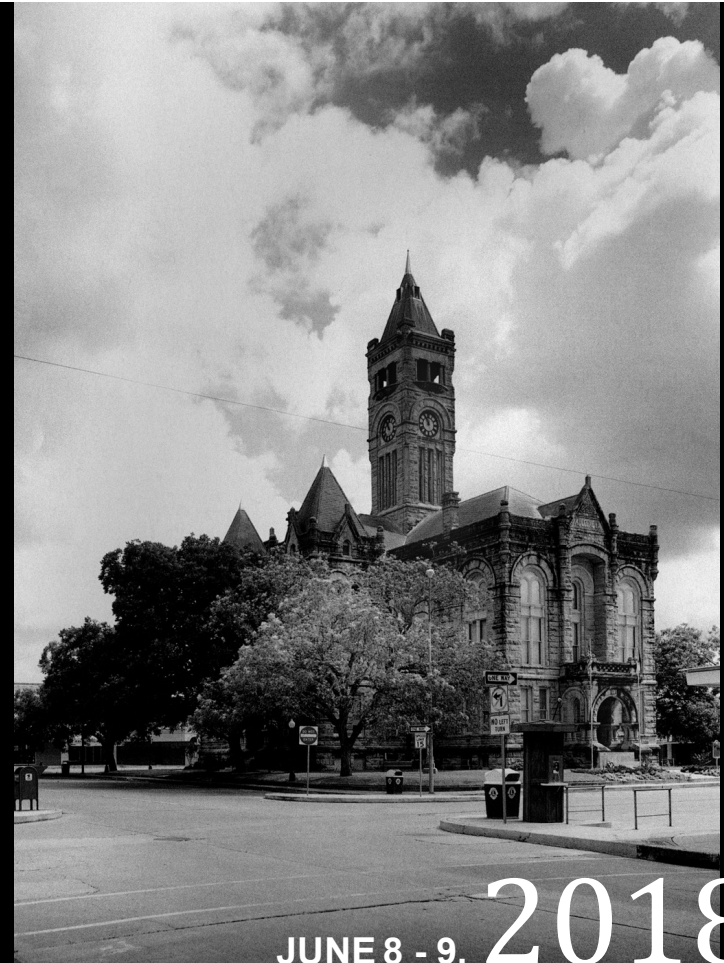

Thursday, June 7 4 PM - 7 PM

Friday, June 8 4 PM - 7 PM

Complete form and entry fee with each entry.

Must retrieve artworks on Saturday at 5 PM or within 30 days of event.

Cover photo by Richard Payne, FAIA

JUNE 8 - 9, 2018

Third Annual Hallett Oak Gallery Art in Architecture
Partnering with

Texas Society of Architects

Hallett Oak Gallery, located in the Historic Kahn &
Stanzel Bldg., 115 N. Main St., Hallettsville, TX 77964
361-217-7030 www.halletoakgallery.com

Guest Speakers

Ann McGlone, AIA, Principal of Alamo Architects

Ann McGlone has thirty years of preserving and creating urban spaces. She has been restoration architect for the Grand Central Terminal in New York City, among others. She is President of Preservation Texas.

Mike McGlone, AIA, Principal of Alamo Architects

Mike is from Pasadena, and attended the School of Architecture at the University of Austin. Mike is currently the citizen architect, curmudgeon-in-residence on the City of Alamo Heights Architectural Review Board. He is President of the Texas Society of Architects.

Doug Kubicek, Author of Grand, Complete, and Perfect: The Lavaca County Courthouse

Doug has had a life-long love of Texas history, especially of Lavaca County. As a child he explored fields, bridges, and graveyards, bringing home arrowheads, broken glass and other artifacts. Teaching for over 27 years, he received the Linden Heck Howell Outstanding Teaching of Texas History Award in 2011.

Program

Thursday, June 7

$25 at door RSVP for a free box lunch: 361-217-7030

$15 Discount for Teachers, Seniors, and Students.

Walk-ins welcomed, bring own lunch.

Friday, June 8

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM Courthouse Tours, James A. Jakubek

7:00 PM – 9:00 PM Paulina Puljek Lord, Classical Guitarist

Saturday, June 9

8:00 AM – Noon: Donuts and Coffee. Book-Signings

9:00 AM – 10 AM: Courthouse Tours, James A. Jakubek

12:00 – 12:45 PM: Victorian Architecture, Ann McGlone, AIA

1:00 PM – 1:45 PM: Citizen Architecture, Mike McGlone, AIA

2:00 PM – 2:45 PM: Impact of Railroads, Doug Kubicek

3:00 PM – 4:00 PM: Winners Announced, Public Reception

Hallet Oak Gallery
Historic Kahn & Stanzel Bldg.
115 N. Main St. or P.O. Box 662
Hallettsville, TX 77964
361-217-7030 Building
www.halletoakgallery.com